

The Reflector.

THURSDAY, MAY 30, 1889.

RECEIT REFLECTIONS.

Shockey & Snider's is the place to get garden seeds. Call quick before their stock is gone.

A Manchester man has caught nineteen wolves in the past ten days. At $3 per scalp he is making money.

The Chapman Courier, in a desperate attempt to keep in view of the tail end of the procession, has begun to number its runways.

Shockey & Snider have the Cassaday plow for sale. They also keep a full line of repairs.

The hardest rustling done at present is that of the corn and wheat which are having a neck and neck race to see which can grow the faster.

The Quick Meal gasoline stove handled by Shockey & Snider for four years has never failed to give satisfaction.

The lightning Thursday night killed eight head of cattle for Roger Dodge, one of Willowdale's leading farmers. The loss is a severe one for him.

All kind of field and garden seeds, fresh and warranted to grow, at Shockey & Snider's.

The State Sunday school association re-elected Hon. C. H. Lebold treasurer at the McPherson meeting. Abilene can furnish the best officials in the State.

A letter addressed to "The Principal Newspaper of Abilene, Kas." was delivered today to the REFLECTOR as promptly as though sent to this office by name. A paper's reputation soon becomes known and the REFLECTOR certainly has one to be proud of.

The 8-year old son of W. H. Elliott, living north of Banner City, was terribly mangled by a vicious dog last Wednesday. The animal was a pet and set upon the child while he was playing with it. The boy's arm was fearfully lacerated and nearly all the flesh torn from one of his limbs. The right leg will have to be amputated. Abilene has hundreds of worthless curs running at large that should be shot on sight or some day we will have a case similar to the above to chronicle here.

The Kansas City Globe yesterday had a number of answers from police judges of the State regarding the cases of drunkenness coming before them. Police Judge James Frey, of Enterprise, had this to say: "I will state with great pleasure that there have been no convictions for drunkenness in our city during the past eighteen months. Presuming that you gather the desired statements for publication, I would like to request of you to have my report appear in your paper as well as others." Good for Enterprise!

The Eli driving plows at Shockey & Snider's. Farmers, look at them before purchasing. The improved Buckeye churn sold by Shockey & Snider is a veritable boon to butter makers. It is unexcelled for butter-making, at Shockey & Snider's.

Busted!

Twine combination busted. Two cars at Gross & Leckron's at the old prices. One door south of postoffice, Abilene, Kas.

Made One.

Peter Jordan and Miss Tiney Keller were married in the probate court room by his honor Judge Peck at 2 p. m. The ceremony was performed with the usual accompaniments, salutations included.

Probate Court.

Burt Austin, administrator of the estate of Elijah Austin, deceased, filed his first annual account.

The will of Thos. Kenney was admitted to probate and letters testamentary granted to John Latto and C. Hoffman, the widow choosing under the law.

Pleaded Guilty.

James Mack, the prisoner in the county jail who attempted to escape from Jailor Simpson, was arraigned before Judge Quinn this morning. He pleaded guilty to a misdemeanor and was sentenced to 60 days in jail. His trial for larceny at Herington will be held during the district court session.

Firemen's Tournament.

The State Volunteer Firemen's association has announced the following prizes to be awarded at the tournament to be held in Ottawa in September:

Best appearing department..... $25
Championship hose race—dry..... $100
Dry hose test..... $20
Hose and ladder race..... $25
Speed race..... $25
Combination race..... $25
Coupling contest..... $25
Foot race..... $25
Ladder contest..... $25

We look to see Abilene's department walk off with a number of the above trophies.

Considerable Damage.

The county commissioners found considerable damage done to the bridges throughout the county by the recent storms. The iron bridge at John Whitehair's on Turkey creek was found to be injured by one post settling. Whitehair was employed to repair the same. The bridge over Holland creek, near Childs' mill, was badly damaged and it will be necessary to put in a new one. The number of small bridges and culverts that are washed away is very numerous.

THE DAILY BURGLARIES.

Two Dwellings Entered and a Watch Taken—Of Course the Burglar Gets Away Safely.

The residence of D. E. Snider, corner Spruce and Sixth streets was burglarized last night and Mr. S.'s watch and chain taken.

This affair was equally as bold as that of the night before. Mr. and Mrs. Snider's room was entered by the burglar, who gained admittance through a window, and thoroughly ransacked it. Several rooms of the house were entered, but nothing was taken except Mr. Snider's watch and chain.

The burglar was seen by one of the children when he entered her room and she, awakening, gave the alarm. She saw his back as he left the door, and describes him as dressed in dark clothes and of a strong build.

Mr. Snider was awakened, but before he could get down stairs the man had left by the dining room door. There was considerable money and jewelry in the house, but, fortunately, the robber missed them.

There is not the least clue to the perpetrator of the deed, but judging from his methods he is the same individual who has been entering other residences in the city. An imperative necessity exists for prompt and stringent measures for stopping this daily, or rather nightly, burglary business. People are becoming nervous over the continued devilry and do not know where the lightning will strike next. Every one should be ready, on his own account, to give the robbers a dose of lead if it is possible to get a shot at them, though from the boldness of their actions they would not hesitate to take life themselves if caught in an emergency.

ANOTHER INSTANCE.

About the same time of night the house of A. D. Mitchell on East Fifth was entered, Mrs. Mitchell being alone. A light was burning and this the burglar turned up. Mrs. M. was awakened and saw the man standing near the foot of the bed. She reached for a revolver and attempted to fire at him but the weapon would not go off for a minute or two. Finally she shot but he was just leaving the room and she could not hit him. He took some clothing which he left in a neighbor's yard. Mrs. M. declares she could identify the man.

MUNICIPAL MATTERS.

The City Council considers Committee Reports—The Street Commissioner to be Employed Only Temporarily.

The city council met last evening in special session in the council chamber with all members present but Clerk Seeds.

Mayor Lebold called the meeting to order, and W. J. Winfield was appointed clerk pro tem. A suggestion from the mayor that the finance committee view all bills previous to the regular monthly meeting was acquiesced in.

Almeron Howard for the street and alley committee made a verbal report which was listened to, and further time was granted the committee.

The sidewalk on the south side of First street, in front of the Berry lot, was discussed, but no action was taken. The fire and water committee reported in regard to the purchase of more hose. The matter was postponed until the next meeting. Mayor Lebold suggested a meeting of the fire department for the better discussion of the subject.

The street and alley committee was instructed to care for the material formerly composing the Fifth street foot bridge which was washed away in the storm.

The committee on buildings and grounds was instructed to move the cemetery building to proper position and His Honor, the mayor, was added to the committee.

The reports to the several railways from the mayor was ordered spread on the minutes.

A resolution drawn up by the City Attorney Mead in regard to the street commissioner was, on motion, adopted, the name of Theodore St. Peter being inserted. The resolution is: Resolved, That it is expedient to allow the office of street commissioner to remain vacant until further action by this council.

Resolved, That the mayor be empowered to enter into a contract with Theodore St. Peter for the temporary care and supervision of the streets and alleys of the city, provided, however, that the compensation for such care and supervision, including the use of a team shall not be more than at the rate of $75 per month, and that such contract shall terminate at any time by resolution of this board.

There being no further business, the council adjourned.

Dickinson County Normal Institute.

The Dickinson county normal institute will open in Abilene, Monday, June 10, 1889, at 1 o'clock p. m.

It is hoped that all parties wishing to teach in the county next year will attend. The registration fee will be one dollar. Board can be had at reasonable rates. J. S. Ford, 22-11&40-2 County Superintendent.

THE SOLDIERS' SABBATH.

MEMORIAL SERVICES HELD IN THE OPERA HOUSE.

A Large Attendance of Old Soldiers and Others—Rev. Zimmerman Delivers an Interesting and Thoughtful Address—Beautiful Decorations.

There is certainly no lack in Abilene of hearty, enthusiastic love for the nation's defenders, nor is there any hesitancy in lending every effort to honoring in the most appropriate and impressive manner the memory of the dead heroes who laid down their lives for their country.

The Sabbath memorial services held in the opera house Sunday afternoon were attended by an audience which filled every seat in the large room and also much of the standing room.

The opera house had been decorated profusely and beautifully by the members of the W. R. C. and G. A. R. Flags fluttered in the summer breeze from every point and bunting was twined around the stage and the walls. Two large engravings of the President and Vice President flanked the front view, while a heavy flag draped the desk.

The front seats had been reserved for the Post and were occupied by a hundred or more old veterans whose heads are whitening year by year. The W. R. C. and Sons of Veterans were also present in a body.

THE EXERCISES.

The exercises of the afternoon, presided over by Rev. Zimmerman, opened at 3 p. m. with an invocation sung by the Lutheran quartette—Miss McWhir, Mrs. Albright, Messrs. Wendell and Albright, T. E. Dewey presiding at the organ.

Following, the audience joined in singing the grand old melody, "God Bless Our Native Land."

Rev. E. D. Walker made the prayer. He touchingly referred to the soldiers' work and hoped that it might be said that the country had not failed in properly recognizing its debt to them. The scripture reading was by Rev. F. M. Porch, of the Lutheran church, and was followed by the ever impressive Te Deum exquisitely rendered by the quartette.

THE SERMON.

Rev. W. H. Zimmerman, the speaker of the day, then delivered the sermon. He was closely followed by his auditors.

We are not here this afternoon, he said, for the purpose of awakening old animosities or of quickening the sorrows which are gone. We are here to honor the memory of our deceased comrades to whom is due the honor of perpetuating the civil, religious and educational interests of our common country.

There were when the war broke out foes without and within. The nation was called upon to combat outside difficulties as well as internal dissensions. "I am no croaker," emphatically announced the speaker, "I believe that fate destined this country to attain a fuller and a grander glory in the future and that the stars and stripes shall never be lowered." But, in spite of the promise of today, eternal vigilance is necessary.

Let us take care that we discharge our duty as patriots and as citizens fully and faithfully. Let us do this by attending all political conventions, especially primaries, and throwing our influence for the best men. Let us try to put only those men in office whose lives are in accord with the best principles of citizenship and morality.

After elaborating the duties of the true citizen he turned to the duty of the government toward its pensioners, and that his remarks met the approbation of the audience was evident from the hearty and continued applause that frequently interrupted him. Especially was this noticeable when he showed how the soldier's widow was put on an allowance of $12 a month, when, with her husband living to draw the pension, he received $40.

He closed with an appropriate and eloquent tribute to the dead defenders who sleep beneath carpets of green in a thousand battlefields and cemeteries. Rev. M. C. Platz offered the closing prayer and the quartette sang another selection, after which the audience was dismissed with the benediction.

Insanity Examination.

The examination of Christian Brechbill regarding his sanity was held before the probate judge this afternoon. A large number of witnesses testified and the case was given to the jury too late to get the verdict this evening.

Music Teacher.

Mrs. Sarah A. Thompson, St. Louis, Mo., teacher of THE ART OF SINGING will conduct a summer term at Enterprise. Mrs. Ch. Hax-Rosatti, of St. Louis, says: "Mrs. Sarah A. Thompson, who has been one of my pupils, is competent to give thorough instruction in singing." For terms address at Enterprise. 39-tf

Closing Exercises.

The city schools are having their final examinations this week. In addition to the members of the school board, some of whom are present, the teachers are being assisted by Messrs. J. G. Landis and J. H. Neisley in their work of testing the pupils' knowledge of the year's work.

Closing exercises in all the grades will be held Wednesday. Commencement exercises of the graduating class Friday night in the opera house.

ENTHUSIASTIC WORKERS.

Doings of the State Sunday School Convention at McPherson—Stirring Reports Submitted—Complete List of Officers.

McPHERSON, Kas., May 24.—The twenty-fourth annual convention of the Kansas State Sunday school association, after three days of delightful and efficient work, adjourned, finally, last evening to convene one year hence at such time and place as the State executive committee may decide upon.

This was one of the most, if not the most, enthusiastic, largely attended, and profitable conventions ever held in the history of the association.

All parts of the State were ably represented by delegates. Treasurer Lebold's and Gen. Sec'y Bright's reports show a great improvement in finances and statistics.

Two years ago when Mr. Bright was chosen general secretary, the association was heavily in debt—today all bills are paid and a good balance is in the treasury with which to begin the work of the new year.

Hon. Wm. Reynolds, of Peoria, Ill., president of the last International convention at Chicago, and Mrs. Mattie M. Bailey, of Iowa, were both in attendance and rendered most valuable assistance at all the sessions of the convention.

Prof. Excell, of Chicago, kept the convention all on fire with his soul-stirring choruses and held the immense audiences spellbound with his inspiring solos.

The following officers were chosen for the ensuing year: President, Prof. Weller, of Lane University, Leocompton; general secretary, Rev. J. A. Bright, Abilene; recording secretary, Frank Kizer, of Downs; treasurer, C. H. Lebold, Abilene.

Executive Committee—Dr. J. W. Redden, Topeka, chairman; Rev. T. F. Dornbriser, Topeka; Mr. Foucht, Topeka; T. B. Sweet, Topeka; J. F. Drake, Emporia; Rev. J. W. Wright, Cottonwood Falls; Mr. Smalley, Hiawatha; Howard C. Rash, Salina; Rev. T. F. Stauffer, Abilene; J. G. Hoskell, Lawrence.

Sixteen delegates were elected to attend the World's Sunday school convention in London July 24, 3d, 4th and 5th, 1889. Our general secretary, Mr. Bright, is one of the sixteen delegates, and by a resolution of the convention, unanimously adopted, his expenses are to be defrayed by the State association. Mr. Bright will sail in the steamer "Bothnia" from New York on June 19th and will be gone about six weeks.

The city of McPherson entertained the convention most royally. Too much cannot be said in praise of the hospitality of this beautiful and enterprising city. Their opera house is surely one of the most commodious and handsome in the State. It is highly probable that the next convention will be held in the city of Atchison in May, 1890.

Former Abileneites.

From an article in the Logan County (Col.) Advocate we take the following which tells of some former residents of this city who are now located along the Arkansas valley in Southern Colorado:

La Junta is a town of some 1500 inhabitants, is a division point of the Santa Fe, where are located the round house and machine shops, and from whence that great railroad extends an arm to the Western sea. Fine church buildings, large business blocks, and commodious school houses ornament the city. Here we met our old Abilene friends, Judge James Hoffmire and son, Thomas; also M. J. Daley and Roe Powell, to all of whom we were indebted for courtesies shown. Judge Hoffman and Son are legal gentlemen of extensive knowledge of the law and a large and successful practice. Mr. Daley is one of the genial proprietors of a flourishing shoe store, and one of the best fellows in the world. We were pleased to know that these old time Abilene boys were prospering. With La Junta the selected county seat of the new county Otero, large farming and stock interests and railroad prestige, it is bound to go forward to a bright future. Next in importance is the town of Rocky Ford. It also contains some old Abilene friends in the persons of W. A. Hansbrough and Col. W. D. Robb. The former is one of the prominent business and real estate men and agents of the city, and the Ford people will surely find in Gus Hansbrough a man of untiring energy and indomitable perseverance. You can't "down" him. He has too much nerve, pluck and enterprise. Col. Robb is at the head of the irrigation interests, and royally does he fill the position. They are both making money. Our limited space forbids giving the extended description of the valley we would like, but some day we may do better.

Stopped at Colorado Springs on the return, and spent a pleasant day with A. H. Martin, another old Abilene boy, who has his hands full of contracting and carpentering. Abilene boys get to the front wherever they hang up their hats. Also shook with Z. T. Bush, who used to scrape physiognomies in Abilene before prohibition cost its cooling influence over the burg. He is a dandy now, and has enough iron dollars to plaster Pike's Peak out of sight.

State University Examination. The authorities of the State University at Lawrence have arranged to hold about twelve examinations in different parts of the State for entrance to the University next September. I have been asked by the Chancellor to hold one of these examinations in Abilene.

The examination will be held at the central school building June 7 and 8. All who desire to enter the State University, or any college, may take the examination and have the satisfaction of trying the questions.
